Golf Report for the Week Ending 10/4/2022.

Monday's women's vets had a social day – all winners.

10 Inverell veteran golfers travelled to Glen Innes to play in the Claydon Shield on Tuesday leaving a small field in Inverell. Kevin Campbell, with 36 points, was the winner at home and Rowan Butler, with 34, was runner-up. John Tom and Gordon Dean followed with 33. Next best was Col Flood with 32. Dave Ryan and John Foulcher took the nearest the pins and Gordon Dean the putting.

Dick Hudson was the best of the Inverell team at Glen Innes with 35 points and was closely followed by Steve Kent with 34.

Wednesday's women played a par event. Helen Edwards, +3, finished first in a countback with Wendy Alexander. Next was Liz Hobday with +2 and then Jan Frater and Di Shadlow on 0.

Ken Luxford was the winner of Thursday's men's 12- hole comp with 29 points. Bill Wade was next in a countback with Steve Kent on 25. Nearest the pin was Steve Kent while Max Uebergang won the putting in a 3-way countback.

Di Shadlow was best in for Friday's women's stableford with 35 points. Next best was Bronwyn Thorley with 32.

Harry Edmonds was the only player to better his handicap in Saturday's men's stableford. Harry finished with 39 points. Liam McDonald, Rowan Butler, Tim Moses and Anthony Hyde all finished with 35 points. Dave Wargent and Larry Finney were next with 34.

Saturday also saw the semi-final of the Presidents Cup completed. Larry Finney defeated Dave Worgan and Anthony Hyde defeated Steve Kent. Larry and Anthony now meet in the final.

Teena Myler was best in for Saturdays women's stableford with 32 points.

A team from Armidale took out the Inverell 4-person ambrose Scramble qualifier on Sunday.
