Golf Report for the Week Ending 10/6/2022.

With miserably cold conditions numbers were down throughout the week.

The women had a social hit for their Monday Vet's.

Peter Lane was best for the men's Tuesday's vets with a score of 36 points. Jim Shadlow was runner-up with 34. Rowan Butler, Peter Wallace and Richard Cracknell were the ball winners. Nearest the pins went to Simon Smith, Richard Cracknell and Jim Shadlow who also won the putting. Peter Lloyd won the super-vets 9-hole comp.

Di Shadlow had a great round on Wednesday to win the women's monthly medal by 5 shots. She finished with nett 69 and was followed by Helen Lockwood, 74, Julie Clark, 76, and Helen Edwards and sandy cook, 77.

Thursday's 12-hole comp was won by Chris Bell with 33 points. Gordon Dean and Rodney Jones were next with 30 points. Nearest the pin was Chris Bell and Ken Uebergang won the putting.

Di Shadlow had another win when a small field took on the cold, windy conditions to play Fridays stableford. Anne Peters was runner-up.

The cold conditions resulted in lots of ordinary scores on Saturday. Only one player from either the men's or women's comps played to their handicap.

Sandy Cook was best in for the Saturday's women's stableford with 31 points. Helen Lockwood was one point behind.

Andrew Iskov, 37 points, was the player to beat his handicap. Tom Kennedy, 35, Glen cross, 34, and Paul Amos, Samuel Swan and Ben Butler, 32, were the next best.

Inverell Open 4BBB Proudly sponsored by Arlington GasWeld

Local pair Mick Fox and Dave Worgan (B Grade Club Champion), with 45 points, were the winners of the Men's Open Fourball on Sunday. Bundarra pair, Peter Hall and Pall Johnson, were runners-up.

The Armidale pair of Tim Murray and Matthew Bull were Gross winners while Uralla players Josh Clark and Robbie Porter took the runner-up prize.

In the progressive rounds for the men after the June Monthly Mug, James Davis has hit the lead in the Hoyt Cup. Taking the best 5 scores from the 7 Mugs played, James has a 10 shot lead over Tony Baldwin. Ben Davis is one shot behind Tony and Adam Paton and John Coote another shot behind Ben.

In the Order of Merit, Rowan Butler has the lead ahead of Matt Mikaere, Paul Amos and James Davis.
