

Weekly Golf Report 22/5/2022

Inverell Golf Club website

Check it out

<https://www.inverellgolfclub.org/>

Rowan Butler was a big winner at Tuesday's vet's comp. Rowan won the day with 35 points, he won a nearest the pin and also the vet's Monthly Mug with a 3-round total of 102 points. Jim Shadlow was runner up on the day with 34. He was followed by Simon Smith and Larry Finney, 32, and the Steve Glover, 31. Nearest the pins went to Rowan Butler, Steve Glover and Peter Lane while Greg Brabant won the putting.

The women's championships were completed on Wednesday. Liz Hobday won her 22nd Inverell Golf Club Championship when she finished her 3 rounds 11 shots clear of 2nd placed Sandy Cook.

The overall Nett Champion was Julie McRae. Julie started the last round with a 12-shot lead and that was the final gap between her and Sandra Williams.

The B Grade leader going into the last round was Jan Frater. Julie Clark picked up the 1 shot to catch her and force a playoff. Julie then went on to win the 3-hole playoff and take the B Grade Gross Championship.

Julie McRae won C Grade, well ahead of her nearest rival, Helen Tickle.

Five Inverell golfers, Helen Edwards, Sue Urquhart, Sandy Cook, Brenda Zabaks and Leonie Davison, travelled to Glen Innes on Thursday to compete against Deepwater/Delungra in the northern section of the New England women's pennants. The Inverell team had a 5-0 win giving them 6 points for the day.

They had played Tenterfield in the first round and will now be matched against Glen Innes in the final round. This will be held in Glen Innes on June 16.

Trevor Kiernan was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp with 30 points. John Green, 29, and Barry Croft, 28, were next best. John Watts won the nearest the pin and the putting.

Five Inverell golfers, Helen Edwards, Sue Urquhart, Sandy Cook, Brenda Zabaks and Leonie Davison, travelled to Glen Innes on Thursday to compete against Deepwater/Delungra in the northern section of the New England women's pennants. The Inverell team had a 5-0 win giving them 6 points for the day. The 6 points coming from the 5 matches won and a bonus point for winning all 5.

They now play Glen Innes in the final round of the Northern section of the New England pennants. This will be held in Glen Innes on June 16.

Julie McRae won Friday's stableford with 33 points. Teena Myler and Anne Peters took 2nd and 3rd spots.

Friday's 'Tradie comp' winner was Trudi Tonkin with 22 points.

Trudi Tonkin was the winner of the women's stableford on Saturday. Trudi won in a countback with Teena Myler when they both finished with 32 points.

The men played the first two round of the Club Championships over the weekend. With good grass on the course and overcast conditions very few players bettered their handicaps.

Paul Amos was the overall winner on Saturday in a countback with Dave Martel. They, with scores of nett 65, joined David Hawker, 66, to be the only players to finish under their handicap. Grade winners were Dave Martel, Matt O'Reilly, John Green and Barry Holland.

Play was suspended Sunday afternoon when some greens became unplayable due to water lying on the surface. An announcement on what happens next will be made as soon as possible after seeking advice from higher authorities. Aaron Coleman was clubhouse leader when he finished earlier with nett 62. Anthony Hyde, 69, and Ted Edmonds and Jeremy Tickle, 70, performed well in the difficult conditions.

Coming up this week.

Monday – Women's vets – 9am start.

Tuesday – men's vets 18-hole stableford 9am start or 9-hole oldies comp at 10:30.

Wednesday – women playing a stableford with a timesheet start.

Thursday – men's 12-hole comp – 8:30 start.

Friday – women's stableford – timesheet. Tradies 9-hole comp in the afternoon.

Saturday – women's stableford and Rounds 3 of the Men's Club Championships.

Sunday – Final round of the men's championships.

Nice day for a game of golf Cooty

Ian Jeffery sinks his birdie

This one actually lipped the hole and came out. Tough one Harry.