

Weekly Golf Report 15/1/2023

Inverell Golf Club website

<https://www.inverellgolfclub.org/>

Don't forget - Sapphire Cup Friday, Saturday, Sunday starting January 27, 2023. The books are filling quickly. Entries close Jan 20 or when full. $16500 worth of prizes.

The ladies vets on Monday was won by Lyn O'Brien and Pat Pickering was runner-up. Helen Tickle was nearest the pin.

Tuesday's vets comp was taken out by a brilliant Leon Fox. Foxy drew the whip and flew past the field with an eye watering 44 points. Even with that score he only finished a short head, 2 points, in front of the old stayer Gordon Dean. Peter Wallace, 39, Rob Walters, 37, and Shaun O'Brien, 36 were next. Mal Dickson and Bruce Garrett were nearest the pin and Mal Dickson won the putting.

Peter Lloyd was the winner of Tuesday's Super vets 9 hole comp.

Julie McRae took out Wednesday ladies summer stableford with a very good 40 points. Anne Coote and Kerry Nicholson were next with 37 points and they were followed by five players on 36 points.

Peter Muhs was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp with 33 points. Closest to him were Dave Ryan, 32, and Aaron Coleman, 27. Nearest the pin went to Kevin Campbell while Graham Moore won the putting.

Julie McRae had another great round to finish with 41 points giving her a second win in two days when she won Friday's ladies stableford. She was 9 points clear of second placed Sandra Williams.

Andrew Iskov, Corey Borthwick, Dave Schofield and Rusty Brien combined to take out Saturday's Irish 4-ball when they finished with 87 points. Ian Jeffery, Jack Jeffery, Adam Paton and Mal Dickson finished with 84 as did Shane Edmonds, Adrian King, Mick Fox and Dave Worgan.

Mal Dickson took out the individual stableford with 41 points. Dave Worgan, 40 points, Jayden Williamson, Rusty Brien and Rowan Butler, 39, were next best.

Leonie Davison, 33 points, was the best in Saturday's ladies stableford.

Jayden Williamson was back next day to take out Sunday's medley stableford with 42 points. Braden Gainey was next with 37 and then Greg Bushell with 35.

The weeks competitions

Monday Jan 9 – The ladies vets hit off at 8:30.

Tuesday – Men's vets comp is back on deck. 8:30 tee off with Super vets hitting off at 10:15.

Wednesday – ladies summer stableford.

Thursday – the men's 12-hole comp - 8:30 start.

Friday – ladies summer stableford. Tradies 9-hole comp later in the day.

Saturday – the men and women will both single stablefords.

Sunday – medley stableford.

play

Mal Dickson was the best individual on Saturday finishing with 41 points

The smile of a winner.

Julie McRae won both ladies comps on Wednesday and Friday with scores of 40 points and 41 points