The ladies vets continued their enjoyable social round on Monday.

Rowan Butler returned to the winners list for Tuesday's men's vets comp. Rowan finished with 36 points. In a low scoring day Rob Walters was runner up with 33 points and next were Jim Shadlow, Shaun O'Brien and Bob Watson each with 32 points. Nearest the pins were won by Rowan Butler, Col Hallam and John Tom while Rowan Butler won the putting. Peter Lane was the winner of the vets Monthly Mug when he finished with a 3-round total of 103 points.

The Ladies stableford was washed out on Wednesday.

Chris Bell was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp. Chris finished with 25 points and won in a 3-way countback with Max Uebergang and Barry Croft. Dave Ryan was nearest the pin and Kevin Campbell won the putting.

Di Shadlow was best of a small field for Friday's ladies stableford. She finished with 33 points.

The Tradies comp on Friday attracted 31 players. Ashley Walters had a good round to finish with 26 points and take 1st prize. Nick Glover, with 25 points, took 2nd spot in a 3-way countback.

The men held their Inverell Off-road and Outdoors Monthly Mug on Saturday and although there was little run on the fairways there were good scores recorded. Harry Edmonds was the March Monthly Mug winner when he recorded an impressive 72 off the stick giving him a nett 65. Harry finished his round with 10 pars and 4 birdies. Grade winners and nett scores were, A Grade – Jason Shaw, 69, B Grade – Dave Worgan, 68, and C Grade – Paul Amos, 68. Bob Watson and Jeremy Tickle recorded scores of 69 while Peter Schofield, Geoff Caban, Dick Hudson and Corey Alexander finished with 71.

Nearest the pins went to Dave Worgan, Harry Edmonds and David Hawker.

The recent rain and lack of run made it hard work for the ladies in their stableford on Saturday. Lou Cathie was a clear winner with 35 points while Sandy Cook finished with 30 to take 2nd spot.

Harry Edmonds was back again on Sunday to win medley stableford. He finished with 36 points, 3 points ahead of 2nd placed Michael Williams.
