Simon Smith sunk some putts in Tuesdays vets comp and finished up the winner with 40 points. Jim Shadlow was next with 38 and he was followed by Peter Lane, 37, Geoff Roberts, 36, and Gordon Dean, 35.

Peter Lloyd won the Super Vets 9-hole comp in a countback with John Henderson.

Anne Peters was best of a good sized group of ladies taking on a par comp on Wednesday. She finished on +1. Sandra Williams, Jan Frater, Helen Edwards and Di Shadlow were next, each finishing square with the card on 0.

Bronwyn Thorley, 16 points, won the ladies 9-hole comp in a countback with Judy Ditton.

Al Bujack was back in form to take out Thursday's 12-hole comp with an impressive 32 points. Gary Lamrock was next with 30 points and Barry Croft 3rd with 29. Dave Martel was nearest the pin and Dave Ryan won the putting.

Sandra Williams was best in the ladies 9-hole stableford on Friday. She finished with 18 points.

Jono Cox won Friday's Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Tradies 9-hole Comp with 30 points. Rowan Butler, 25, was runner-up in a 3-way countback.

59 players took part in the men's stableford on Saturday. Prosecutor, Simon Smith, may have mumbled the term 'kissed by a fairy', to describe Dick Hudson's game when he finished with 39 points and another win. Dick would argue that it was good course management (only hit 1 tree) and very clever play to twice use landing zones in hazards. Positive thinking 'bunkers are my friend' was also useful on 3 occasions. Joseph Tkalec, 38 points, was next best and he was followed by Ryan Kinnear, James Davis and Jake Campbell, each finishing with 37. Tez Moir and Al Bujack finished with 36 points each. Congratulations go to Aaron McNamara. Aaron recorded an eagle on the 8th.

Sandy Cook, 39 points, was best in the ladies stableford on Saturday. Wendy Alexander was next with 35 points.

Peter Lane had a great round to win Sunday's medley stableford with 41 points in a field of 22 players. Ryan Kinnear and James Davis each finished with 40 points on the wrong day - either would have picked up 1st prize on Saturday. Catherine Lane was next with a very good 39 points, followed by Tez Moir, 37.

Nigel Hill took out the 2025 Presidents Cup on Sunday, defeating Steve Kent in a match that went to the 19th hole. Steve was 2 up with 3 to go but found the dams on the 16th and 17th before squaring the 18th.
